1 should be worth -- it's being repainted, new interior, 2 everything. When it's finished, maybe 20, 25.

- Q. So you drove this. You didn't like just 4 park it in 1980 and treat it as a collectable?
- 5 A. Oh, yeah, I quit driving it. I don't
- 6 think in the last -- in fact, I have classic insurance 7 on it where you're not allowed to drive it over 2,000
- 8 miles a year.
- 9 Q. Okay.
- 10 A. And you only pay like $100 a year 11 insurance.
- 12 O. But before you switched, if you will, you
- 13 used it as a car for transportation?
- 14 A. Maybe for -- well, even then it was a
- 15 second car. I didn't drive it much. It's an '80 and
- 16 I think it has like 60-, 70,000 miles, which would be 17 2,000 miles. You know, it's hardly driven.
- 18 Q. When did you get the 1956 Ford
- 19 Thunderbird?
- 20 A. Oh, my gosh, must be 1981, '82.
- 21 O. And what did you pay for it?
- 22 A. I paid $17,000 back then.
- 23 Q. And it too you treat as a collector's
- 24 item?
- 25 A. Oh, yes. That's hardly driven.

Page 30

- Q. Okay. And the '65 Lincoln?
- 2 A. The '65 Lincoln was owned by the guy who
- 3 owned Westgate, all Westgate Plaza. It had hardly any
- 4 miles, but he died and the car sat out there and the
- 5 sun had eaten up the interior, the paint, and the top.
 6 So it's in now being -- it's been
- 7 there over a year. The guy does it when he's not --
- 8 it's being totally ground up. They took the body off
- 9 the frame. A total ground-up restoration.
- 10 Q. Where do you store these vehicles?
- A. Well, they are mostly at Century Auto
- 12 because he's the guy. He is doing the total
- 13 restoration of the cars, the '80 Corvette and the
- 15 Q. What's the address of Century Auto?
- 16 A. Want me to call him? I could get it for 17 you.
- 18 Q. No. Just give me a part of town, cross
- 19 streets.20 A. It's on Industrial Road. I would say -- I
- 21 would say on the other side of the street of the
- 22 Crazy Horse, maybe 500 feet further down, further 23 south.
- Q. So close to the Crazy Horse on Industrial?
- 25 A. Yes. The man is a German guy from Brazil

1 who's just a perfectionist, that's what he does.

- 2 O. Other than these three cars, the
- 3 Thunderbird, the Lincoln, and the '80 vet, and the
- 4 Corvette you bought from Mr. Rizzolo, have you owned
- 5 any other collectable or classic cars?
- 5 A. No.
- O. Do you remember the year of Mr. Rizzolo's
- 8 Corvette?
- 9 A. 1958.
- 10 Q. Okay. How did you come to a price of a
- 11 hundred thousand dollars?
- 12 A. Well, he told me he needed money for legal
- 13 fees. And I think he owed 50-, $60,000 in legal fees.
- 14 And he told me if he could, if he could get a hundred
- 15 thousand, it would be help him.
 - So I get -- my son gets it's called
- 17 the duPont Registry, and you look into it. And I see
- 18 them range. You know, since the recession, they've
- 19 gone down. There was a time -- you know, it only has
- 20 9,000 miles on it. It looks brand-new. It looks
- 21 showroom.

- 22 So I checked around and I was told
- 23 it's between a low of 85 or 90 and could be worth, to
- 24 the right guy, because where are you going to find one
- 25 with 9,000 miles, it could be worth up to a hundred

Page 31

- 1 and a quarter. So a hundred. It's not a bargain but
- 2 it's not overpriced either.
- 3 Q. What engine did it have in it when you
- 4 bought it?
- 5 A. The same original engine.
- 6 Q. What was that?
- 7 A. You know, I don't know. I don't know.
- 8 O. You don't know the cubic inches?
- 9 A. No. What they go by in the collectors, if
- 10 you don't mind me telling you, the numbers have to
- 11 match. The number of the engine has to match the
- 12 number of the vehicle. If it doesn't, the car
- 13 wouldn't be worth 40,000.
- So if the car's engine had blown up
- 15 and you bought another engine and put it in, you would
- 16 lose. From what collectors tell me, the first thing
- 17 they look up is matching numbers.
- 18 Q. And did you look at those numbers?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Did you hire anybody to evaluate the car
- 21 or did you do that yourself?
- 22 A. No, I did that myself.
- Q. Okay. And you found the numbers matched?
- 24 A. Yes.
- 25 Q. Do you know whether it had fuel injection?

Page 33

- 1 A. You know, I think it does. But I wouldn't
- 2 swear to it.
- 3 Q. Okay. You didn't have it appraised by
- 4 anybody?
- 5 A. No. But it's -- you know, just to give
- 6 you an example. In duPont Registry, they, Chevrolet,
- 7 I don't know why, maybe it was custom, built one, just
- 8 one that was powder blue and white. And they were
- 9 asking 275,000 for that in the duPont Registry. And I
- 10 couldn't figure that out.
- And I called up and the guy said,
- 12 "Well, it's the only car factory -- you know, it
- 13 wasn't repainted. Powder blue and white."
- 14 And you wouldn't think that a color
- 15 change would make -- but, you know, to collectors,
- 16 that all -- it all means something.
- 17 Q. What color was this when you got it?
- 18 A. Red and white.
- 19 O. And was that the original factory color as
- 20 far as you know?
- 21 A. Yes.
- 22 O. How do you know that?
- 23 A. Well, 90 percent were like that. But
- 24 checking the color code that's -- that was the
- 25 factory.

- Page 34
- Q. Did you determine whether or not the frame
- 2 was the original frame?
- 3 A. No. It never even came in my mind.
- 4 Q. Did you determine whether or not this car
- 5 had ever been in an accident?
- 6 A. I never thought much about that. I do
- 7 know that -- I'm sure -- I think he paid -- you know
- 8 what, I forget what he told me he paid. But thought
- 9 it was 75 or 80. So I'm sure he checked it out before
- 10 he bought it.
- 11 Q. So he didn't buy it new?
- 12 A. Oh, no. No.
- 13 Q. How long did he have it?
- 14 A. I don't know.
- 15 Q. Who did he buy it from?
- 16 A. You know, I don't know. I have no idea.
- 17 Q. What type of paperwork did you get when
- 18 you bought it?
- 19 A. Title.
- 20 Q. Just title?
- 21 A. Title. And he made me a bill of sale.
- 22 O. Okay.
- 23 A. I think I gave a copy of the title and the
- 24 bill of sale and the copy of the cashier's check and
- 25 everything.

- Q. When you bought it, was there anything on
- 2 the windshield, any kind of sticker?
- 3 A. You know, I don't recall that.
- 4 Q. Okay. Where did you find the VIN numbers
- 5 that you matched?
- 6 A. I forget. I think one's on the title and
- 7 I just had -- I just had someone look at it.
- O. Well, you said it was important that the
- 9 number on the engine match the number on the body of
- 11 A. Yeah.
- 12 O. Where did you find those two numbers?
- 13 A. I forget, but I...
- 14 O. Did you discuss with Mr. Rizzolo whether
- 15 or not he reported this transaction to his probation 16 officer?
- 17 A. Of course not. Why? Why would I do that?
- 18 Q. He never mentioned whether or not he
- 19 reported it?
- 20 A. I'm shaking my head. I forgot it has to
- 21 be aud- -- no, he never mentioned that.
- 22 Q. Okay. You said he owed money in legal
- 23 fees. Do you know whether he paid those debts off
- 24 with money you gave him?
 - 5 A. No, I don't.

Page 36

- Q. Do you know whether he paid any other
- 2 creditors with the money you gave him?
- 3 A. Not that I know of.
- 4 O. How did you pay him?
- A. Cashier's check. 95 percent cashier's
- 6 check, 5 percent personal check. But I -- I tend to
- 7 say it was a cashier's check.
- 8 Q. When you say 95 and 5, you're indicating
- 9 that you're 95 percent sure it was a cashier's check?
- A. Cashier's check.
- 11 Q. Not that there was one check for 95,000
- 12 and another for 5-?
- 13 A. No, no, no.
- 14 O. One check?
- 15 A. One check for 100.
- 16 Q. One check for 100,000?
- 17 A. Yes.
- 18 Q. But it could have been a personal check?
- 19 A. The only reason I'm pretty positive it's a
- 20 cashier's, I think I made a copy of the check and gave
- 21 it when the judge wanted to see it.
- 22 MR. HUNTERTON: Would you mark this as

Page 45

A. You know, it's really neither. It's 2 definitely not a loan, because I do know he is not 3 allowed to borrow. And I don't want it back.

I told him that the deterioration of 5 this is such a point that he should explore something 6 should be done about it.

And let me go back to the Bicycle 7 8 Club.

You know, Mr. Hardy --

9 Q. I'm going to ask you to hold that thought, 10 11 because the videographer has told me he needs to 12 change tape.

A. Sure. Sure. 13

Q. Since we are going to go back to the 14 15 Bicycle Club, let's take a couple of minutes.

MR. GENTILE: Just before he changes the 17 tape, let me object to the answer as being outside the 18 scope of the question, okay.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of Tape 19 20 No. 1 in the video deposition of Fred Doumani. The 21 time is approximately 10:10 a.m. We are now off the 22 record.

(Recessed from 10:10 a.m. to 10:23 a.m.) 23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the beginning 24 25 of tape No. 2 in the video deposition of Fred Doumani.

Page 46

1 The time is approximately 10:24 a.m. We are back on 2 the record.

3 BY MR. HUNTERTON:

Q. Mr. Doumani, you understand that you are

5 still under oath, right?

A. Yes, I do.

O. When we took that recess to change the 7

8 tape, you said, "Let me go back to the Bicycle Club."

Do you remember your train of 10 thought there?

A. Right. Right.

O. Go ahead and finish what you wanted to say 12

13 about that.

A. There is a big legal fee -- legal firm in

15 Washington, D.C., and the head guy was William

16 Buckley. It's a big firm. And Mr. Hardy, who owned a

17 piece of the Bicycle Club, because the government had

18 taken the club from a very successful club to being

19 worth zero, sort of what happened at the Crazy Horse,

20 sued for Mr. Hardy. He won a $99 million judgment.

The 99 million was appealed by the 21

22 federal government to every court. It stood up. Went

23 to the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Supreme Court

24 wouldn't hear it. So the $99 million judgment was 25 there with interest, legal fees, and everything else.

1 It's up to 131 million. And it has to be paid. It

2 might have been paid since.

But I never forgot that. Because 4 they -- I was subpoenaed on that too because I was

5 buying the Bicycle Club. And when I saw the

6 99 million, with that I think the government has a

7 certain liability when they take over a property and

8 it goes to zero under their auspices.

And like I said, they fooled around

10 for one year with this guy from Chicago. And I have

11 been in business long enough to know when a man

12 commits himself and fools around for one year, you

13 don't have a deal. They never gave it to people that

14 really know how to sell clubs.

The other thing that always bothered

16 me, they never made payments on the mortgage. But

17 from the signage and from the warehouse, they were

18 getting enough monthly payment to come very close to

19 making the payment.

O. You are now talking about the government's

21 administration of Crazy Horse Too?

A. Right. I think it's pathetic. And so to 22

23 me, the 40,000 sort an expedition for Mr. Gentile to

24 look at the overall picture and see what liabilities

25 are here that caused it to go to nothing.

O. You said that it wasn't a loan because it

2 couldn't be. Going back to the --

A. And I --

o. -- 40,000.

A. And I wasn't going to get it back. You

6 know, I never thought of it as a loan in any way. And

7 he has spent so much in legal fees, I wasn't going to

8 burden him anymore, he's a friend. And I had insisted

9 he gets new counsel. I'm the one who told him. He

10 kept telling me the other people knew the case and he

11 wanted to stay with them. I said, "I don't care if

12 they know the case or not, you know, they messed it up

13 so badly."

Q. I understand that. But what I'm trying to 15 take you back to is your comment before the recess

16 that it wasn't a loan because it couldn't be. Why

17 couldn't it be a loan?

A. No. You know, I didn't mean it quite that 19 way. I said it wasn't a loan but I also knew it's

20 illegal for him to borrow money unless, I guess, he

21 got court approval or something.

Q. Okay. So you understood it was a term of 22

23 his probation --

A. Right. 24

Q. -- that he couldn't take on the debt

- O. Mr. Diamond drove the automobile? 3
- A. I believe that.
- O. And was this before or after you obtained 5
- 6 the cashier's check in the amount of $100,000?
- A. Oh, after. After. 7
- O. So you had paid Mr. Rizzolo --8
- A. Right.
- Q. -- by means of this cashier's check, 10
- 11 correct?
- 12
- Q. And then took delivery of the automobile, 13
- 14 correct? Correct?
- 15 A. Yes.
- Q. And the manner in which you took delivery 16
- 17 was that Mr. Diamond followed you over to your son's
- 18 residence?
- 19 A. Yes. And the reason I did that, I didn't
- 20 know how to drive -- you know, I wasn't familiar with
- 21 the car. And I didn't want to bring someone with me
- 22 who wasn't. I didn't want to drive it myself. And
- 23 since Mr. Diamond drives it around to keep the
- 24 battery, you know, just a little bit, he was the most
- 25 familiar with it.

Page 90

- Q. Do you know what type of transmission the 2 automobile has?
- 3 A. Automatic.
- Q. Is it your testimony that you have never
- 5 driven the automobile?
- 6 A. I have never driven the automobile.
- Q. All right. Now I would like to follow up
- 8 a little bit with respect to the $40,000 transaction
- 9 that you engaged in in order to secure the legal
- 10 services of Mr. Gentile.
- A. Yes. 11
- Q. Now, you executed a personal check to the
- 13 law firm that Mr. Gentile is a partner at?
- A. Right.
- O. Gordon & Silver? 15
- A. Yes.
- O. It's in the amount of $40,000? 17
- A. Yes. 18
- Q. All right. And Mr. Hunterton asked you,
- 20 "What was that? Was that a loan?"
- And you said, "Well, it couldn't be 21
- 22 a loan, because he's not allowed to borrow money."
- A. Right.
- Q. And by that you meant Mr. Rizzolo is not 24
- 25 allowed to borrow money?

A. Right.

- O. That that would in some fashion violate
- 3 his terms and conditions of supervised release?
- A. Well, I made it plain that Mr. -- and I
- 5 told Mr. Gentile and a lot of people there, I said,
- 6 "Not only that, I do not want it back from
- 7 Mr. Rizzolo. And I will not take it back from
- 8 Mr. Rizzolo."
- Q. And -- but you said that it wasn't
- 10 actually a gift either.
- A. It's maybe to satisfy my own curiosity as
- 12 to what can be done in the future. And if I see a
- 13 clear shot of something big like what happened at the
- 14 Bicycle Club and I know 40,000 wouldn't do that, but I
- 15 just want to get to test the water to see if
- 16 there's -- if what could be done to make whole taking
- 17 a $30 million business and running it into the ground
- 18 to nothing.
- O. All right. I understand your answer in 19
- 20 that regard. I'm moving to strike it because it's not
- 21 responsive to what I asked. So let me ask the
- 22 question again.
- You do not consider this a loan to 23
- 24 Mr. Rizzolo, this 40,000?
 - A. Right.

Page 91

- Q. Okay. And you do not consider this a 2 gift?
- 3 A. No.
- Q. Do you consider this as some sort of seed
- 5 money for a potential lawsuit against the United
- 6 States of America?
- A. No. I don't want to say that either. I
- 8 don't want to say that either.
- Q. If there were such a lawsuit, would you
- 10 seek to in some fashion profit by any recovery?
- 11 A. No.
- Q. Have you in the past ever invested or
- 13 provided seed money or put at risk any funds in
- 14 pursuit of any causes of action in a civil claim?
- A. No, I haven't. 15
- Q. So it's fair to say that you haven't filed
- 17 a gift tax return of any kind with respect to this
- 18 $40,000?
- 19 A. No. It's not a gift to him.
- o. Right. 20
- Is it anticipated that you're going 21
- 22 to contribute future sums in support of Mr. Rizzolo's
- 23 defense in this action?
- 24 A. No.
- MR. GENTILE: Sorry. Could you repeat 25

TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 26 Page 95 Page 93 1 him; and then when he told me he didn't have the 1 that question? 2 money, it had been a friendship or 30 years. And, MR. CAMPBELL: Sure. 2 3 quite frankly, I had sold the motels for a lot of MR. GENTILE: I didn't hear it. 3 4 money. I didn't consider it a loan. I didn't MR. CAMPBELL: Happy to. 4 5 consider it a gift. I just thought it's something 5 BY MR. CAMPBELL: 6 nice I should do, and I gave him the 40,000. Q. Is it -- do you anticipate contributing 6 Q. I appreciate that and I understood that to 7 further sums to support, help, aid, or assist 8 Mr. Rizzolo in presenting his defense to this present 8 be your testimony when you gave it earlier. My 9 question was a little bit different. 9 civil action? A. Okay. 10 A. No. O. My question was this. Q. Did you meet with Mr. Gentile prior to 11 11 During that meeting that you had 12 giving his firm $40,000? 12 13 with Mr. Gentile --A. No. Q. Did you speak with Mr. Gentile? A. Yes. 14 O. -- and with Mr. Rizzolo --15 15 A. Right. Q. How is it that the $40,000 check was 16 16 O. -- tell me all that was said during the 17 actually delivered to the firm of Gordon & Silver? 17 18 course of that discussion. A. I think in person. I wrote out the check MR. GENTILE: I'm going to object to the 19 after speaking to Mr. Gentile. 19 20 form of that question. Unless you mean all that you O. All right. I thought I just asked you 20 21 can remember. 21 that question whether or not you had spoken to MR. CAMPBELL: That's a disfavored 22 Mr. Gentile, but perhaps --23 objection. It's a speaking objection. MR. GENTILE: You said prior. 23 24 BY MR. CAMPBELL: THE WITNESS: You said prior. 24 O. Just tell me all that was said. MR. GENTILE: You did say prior. 25 Page 94 A. Well, Mr. Gentile said until he gets into MR. CAMPBELL: Right. 1 2 it, he couldn't really say much. And he said he 2 BY MR. CAMPBELL: 3 needed to get into it. Q. So obviously, I wasn't as exacting as I 3 And, quite frankly, you know, from 4 thought I was. 5 having dealt with many attorneys over many years over

Page 96

So you did at some point 5 6 commensurate with the delivery of this check --A. Right.

Q. -- talk to Mr. Gentile?

A. Right. 9

O. And where was that? 10

A. At Mr. Gentile's office. 11

Q. And was Mr. Rizzolo there? 12

13 A. Yes.

Q. All right. And please share with us what

15 that conversation was. First of all, how long did it

16 last?

A. 30, 40 minutes. 17

Q. All right. And please share with us now

19 all that you can recall that was said by the parties

20 to the conversation.

A. Mr. Gentile had to look at everything.

22 And he said for 40,000, he would really get -- get

23 into it.

And since I had encouraged Rick 24

25 Rizzolo to get a new attorney and I kept encouraging 25 office?

6 many issues, I really thought the 40,000 was a small 7 amount of money on a case this huge. And I thought

8 Mr. Gentile was being very helpful to Mr. Rizzolo.

9 And I have tremendous respect for him as an attorney.

10 And I listened carefully.

But like I say, I went to law school

12 for one year, but I certainly don't consider myself

13 some legal expert. But he made sense. And to all the 14 things that have to -- you know, he has to look at

15 everything. He has to look at everything to be able 16 to know where he's at.

Q. Have you now told me all that you can

18 recall about the conversations that you had with

19 Mr. Rizzolo and Mr. Gentile during the course of that 20 meeting that was held in Mr. Gentile's office?

A. Unless you can pinpoint something, I --21

22 that's about it.

Q. Mr. Doumani, could you kindly tell me when

24 it was that this meeting took place in Mr. Gentile's

I like Lisa, but there's no there hasn't been occasion, you know, outside, unfortunately, the two funerals. I can't remember. Q. Okay. Have you engaged in any financial transactions with Lisa Rizzolo in the last 10 years? A. Honestly, not that I can remember. MR. CAMPBELL: Thank you very much for answering my questions. THE WITNESS: Thank you. Thank you. MR. CAMPBELL: All right, sir. Pass the witness. MR. GENTILE: I have no questions. MR. BAILUS: I have no questions.
